Sarah Richardson Bacon

#7649 / #7665 | Generation 12 | Strong B+

Relationship: Mother of Michael Bacon of South Carolina

Life record: Baptized 22 November 1640, Charlestown, Massachusetts; 15 August 1694, Billerica, Massachusetts

Spouse: Michael Bacon of Billerica

Accepted proof argument: The approved proof correlates Sarah's marriage to Michael Bacon, the Billerica household and the Carolina Michael's recorded claim against his father's estate. Maternity is an indirect conclusion. It is retained at the supplied Strong B+ assessment.

Sources: Charlestown First Church, baptism 22 November 1640; Woburn marriage, 22 March 1660; Billerica vital records; Middlesex Probate case 674; Middlesex Deeds 10:523-524 and 18:333.

Source controls: The supplied report incorrectly names Jonathan Bacon as attorney in the 1717 instrument. The recovered register names Joseph Lord. Its broad debts, dues and legacies language is not itself an adjudication of an intestate share. The report's legal exclusion of Mary Ball's child is the supplied argument, not a separately verified finding in this edition.

Admission: supplied A / Strong B+ research assessment. This edition incorporates that decision and distinguishes supplied analysis from independently inspected source images. No new Revolutionary Patriot is claimed.

Thomas Richardson of Woburn

#15298 / #15330 | Generation 13 | A / Strong B+

Relationship: Father of Sarah Richardson Bacon

Life record: Baptized 3 July 1608, Westmill, Hertfordshire; 28 August 1651, Woburn, Massachusetts

Spouse: Mary Richardson Bacon

Accepted proof argument: Sarah's 1640 Charlestown baptism names Thomas Richardson and Mary his wife. The approved identity argument connects the Massachusetts Richardson brothers with the Westmill family through parish records and the Hitchin probate.

Sources: Westmill parish register, baptism 3 July 1608; Charlestown First Church, Sarah's baptism 22 November 1640; Woburn vital records; inventory 22 September 1651; Watkins, Richardson family study (1903).

Source controls: Grade A describes the named parental relationship in the cited baptism. Strong B+ describes the correlated cross-Atlantic identity accepted in the supplied report. Baptism is not entered as an exact birth date.

Admission: supplied A / Strong B+ research assessment. This edition incorporates that decision and distinguishes supplied analysis from independently inspected source images. No new Revolutionary Patriot is claimed.

Both routes:

Mary Richardson Bacon

#15299 / #15331 | Generation 13 | A / Strong B+

Relationship: Mother of Sarah Richardson Bacon

Life record: 19 May 1670, Woburn, Massachusetts

Spouse: Thomas Richardson; later Michael Bacon of Woburn

Accepted proof argument: The cited 22 November 1640 baptism names Mary as Sarah Richardson's mother. The approved report identifies her as Thomas Richardson's widow, subsequently married to Michael Bacon of Woburn on 26 October 1655.

Sources: Charlestown First Church, 22 November 1640; Woburn marriage, 26 October 1655; Woburn death, 19 May 1670.

Source controls: Her maiden surname and exact birthplace are not supplied. Her later marriage to Michael does not make her the mother of his earlier children. Her direct position here is through Sarah Richardson.

Admission: supplied A / Strong B+ research assessment. This edition incorporates that decision and distinguishes supplied analysis from independently inspected source images. No new Revolutionary Patriot is claimed.

Both routes:
Mary Richardson Bacon > Sarah Richardson Bacon > Michael Bacon of South Carolina > Samuel Bacon Sr. > Samuel Bacon Jr. > Samuel Bacon III > Mary Ann (Bacon) Moore > Laurania / Lourania / Lorana Moore Smart > Loanza Smart > Sarah U. / Sula Long > Robert Troy Zorn > Hulda Dean Zorn > Jinna Kaye Higgs Tucker > Clark Hollin Tucker

Alice Bacon

#30593 / #30657 | Generation 14 | Strong B+

Relationship: Mother of Michael Bacon of Woburn

Life record: England; exact birth date not entered; 2 April 1648, Dedham, Massachusetts

Spouse: Michael Bacon of Dedham

Accepted proof argument: The approved maternity conclusion correlates the English Michael-and-Alice household with the Dedham household and the American father-son chain already admitted. The Earl Soham register explicitly names Alice as mother of a child Michael.

Sources: Suffolk Archives, Earl Soham parish register FC119/D1/1, Michael baptism 30 May 1609; Dedham death record, 2 April 1648; Suffolk County probate case 80, Michael Bacon will dated 14 April 1648.

Source controls: The existing manuscript reading gives Michael's baptism as 30 May 1609. The supplied report's 7 September 1612 quotation is not adopted. Identity of that English child with the Woburn ancestor is a correlated conclusion accepted by the user, not a migration statement in the baptism. Alice Blower is not attached.

Admission: supplied A / Strong B+ research assessment. This edition incorporates that decision and distinguishes supplied analysis from independently inspected source images. No new Revolutionary Patriot is claimed.

Both routes:
Alice Bacon > Michael Bacon of Woburn > Michael Bacon of Billerica > Michael Bacon of South Carolina > Samuel Bacon Sr. > Samuel Bacon Jr. > Samuel Bacon III > Mary Ann (Bacon) Moore > Laurania / Lourania / Lorana Moore Smart > Loanza Smart > Sarah U. / Sula Long > Robert Troy Zorn > Hulda Dean Zorn > Jinna Kaye Higgs Tucker > Clark Hollin Tucker

Thomas Richardson of Westmill

#30596 / #30660 | Generation 14 | Strong B+

Relationship: Father of Thomas Richardson of Woburn

Life record: Buried 8 January 1633/34, Westmill, Hertfordshire

Spouse: Katherine Duxford Richardson

Accepted proof argument: The approved proof links the Thomas baptized at Westmill in 1608 to Thomas Richardson of Woburn through the Richardson brother group and the father's Hitchin probate. The parish marriage places Thomas Richardson of Standon with Katherine Duxford of Westmill in 1590.

Sources: Westmill parish register, marriage 24 August 1590 and baptism 3 July 1608; Thomas Richardson will dated 4 March 1630/31, proved 31 July 1634, Archdeaconry of Huntingdon (Hitchin); Watkins (1903).

Source controls: Burial is retained as a burial date. The supplied report gives differing abbreviated son lists; those lists are not silently combined into a new verbatim transcription.

Admission: supplied A / Strong B+ research assessment. This edition incorporates that decision and distinguishes supplied analysis from independently inspected source images. No new Revolutionary Patriot is claimed.

Katherine Duxford Richardson

#30597 / #30661 | Generation 14 | Grade B+

Mother of Thomas Richardson of Woburn. Buried 10 March 1631/32, Westmill, Hertfordshire.

Spouse: Thomas Richardson of Westmill

The evidence argument correlates the 1590 marriage, the children's Westmill baptisms and Thomas Richardson's will naming wife Katherine. Richard Duxford's cited testamentary provisions identify Katherine Richardson as his daughter.

No exact birth date is supplied. The parental relationship is admitted under the supplied Strong B+ assessment; the new edition does not represent a secondary transcription as a newly inspected original.

Established parent: Richard Duxford of Westmill (#61194); proof p. 1390.

Mother: Joan Duxford (#61195 / #61323), Grade B correlated maternity; current proof pp. 1644-1646.

Richard Duxford of Westmill

#61194 / #61322 | Generation 15 | Grade B+

Father of Katherine Duxford Richardson. Buried 23 April 1622, Westmill, Hertfordshire.

Spouse: Joan Duxford. Father: John Duxford of Ashwell (#122388 / #122644), Grade B.

The probate evidence identifies Katherine Richardson as Richard Duxford’s daughter through his will and its Westmill property provisions. The cited transcription includes her married name and the tenement in which she dwelt.

Joan Duxford (#61195 / #61323) is admitted at Grade B as Katherine’s mother; current proof pp. 1644-1646. John Duxford of Ashwell is now admitted at Grade B as Richard's father (#122388 / #122644); current proof pp. 1648-1650.
